

Code of Conduct

"Let all things be done decently and in order"

11 Chor. 14.40

In accordance with the Apostolic doctrine, we are asking every camper to fully acknowledge all rules and regulations concerning our code of conduct. These codes of conduct were designed to ensure the safety of all campers as well as promote Holy standards based on Biblical scriptures. We urge every camper to abide by this code of conduct. If any camper is found violating these rules, he/she will be subject to disciplinary actions by the camp pastor and face possible expulsion from the camp. As a result, the district youth board has decided to provide you with an outline of camp rules for your review;

- Respect and obey your camp advisers/counselors because they have been specifically designated to your group. Look towards them for immediate guidance if you have any questions.
- You are required to attend every event that has been outlined in your schedule of activities.
- It is our goal to promote a safe environment therefore; we will not allow the following on camp premises;

1. No Drugs
2. No Weapons
3. No Alcohol
4. No Inappropriate Behavior or Language

- It is important we realize how our attire affects our camp atmosphere which is why we would like to briefly touch on some clothing guidelines.

- No tight or revealing clothing
- No gang related apparel paraphernalia
- No short (above the knee) skirts
- No sleeveless shirts
- No shorts or tank tops, (Young men, recommend comfortable windbreaker /athletic pants for sports)
- No jewelry or make-up
- No iPod/ MP3's etc.
- Sisters – please bring your veil!!!
- Also, don't forget your Bible's

All in all, these rules were designed to provide us with a Holy and safe environment for all campers. Also, the NGVDMOP is not responsible for lost or stolen items. This year's camp will be packed with wonderful expectations as well as fun filled learning experiences that will help us grow spiritually. However, we must expect a guideline to help us take advantage for these activities. It is our desire that you enjoy this year's camp and spread the blessing God will undoubtedly pour on all our campers.
